

BIOPHYSICAL, AQUATICS, & WETLANDS

OFFERING A FULL SPECTRUM OF WATER AND WILDLIFE COMPLIANCE SERVICES TO SUPPORT OUR CLIENTS' SPECIFIC PROJECT NEEDS

360's specialized services in biophysical, water, and wildlife management stand at the forefront of ecological conservation and restoration. We are dedicated to offering comprehensive solutions that encompass the assessment, monitoring, and management of biological, physical, and water-related environments. Our expert team leverages cutting-edge technology and scientific methodologies to ensure that natural habitats are preserved, restored, and enhanced. By partnering with us, you gain access to unparalleled expertise in navigating the complexities of environmental stewardship, ensuring your projects not only meet regulatory compliance but also contribute positively to biodiversity conservation and the ecological balance.

OUR SERVICES

As regulations evolve, we continually update our practices to ensure our clients' projects meet the highest standards.

- Water Act license applications and renewals
- Wetland Assessment and Impact Form (WAIF) and Report (WAIR)
- Alberta Wetland Rapid Evaluation Tool (ABWRET) desktop and actual
- Code of Practice completion
- Temporary Diversion License (TDL) submission and monitoring
- New construction and pre-site wildlife and migratory bird sweeps and surveys

EXPERT SPOTLIGHT

Harvey Yuen

SENIOR BIOLOGICAL SPECIALIST/QAES

Harvey has 16 years of experience in environmental and biological science related programs in support of energy and industrial projects for client success. Harvey is a Qualified Aquatic Environmental Specialist (QAES) and has extensive experience with wetland assessments, aquatic and terrestrial evaluations, Water Act requirements, fisheries and aquatic life support, Migratory Birds Convention Act (MBCA), and biophysical surveys within municipalities.

 hyuen@360eec.com

360 Engineering & Environmental Consulting Ltd.

info@360eec.com
403.454.3600

